Theme: Year of Women in Local Government (YoWiLG)

- 1.45pm Sponsor ALS Library Services Tricia Genat
- 1.50pm Advancement of Women at Salisbury – the program commenced at Salisbury in early 2003 in response to the 2002 National Strategy for Women in Local Government, which was developed by the Australian Local Government Women’s Association (ALGWA). In November 2002, a number of women from Salisbury formed a planning group to develop an action plan to address the issues identified nationally, state-wide and at the City of Salisbury. This presentation will focus on the achievements to date and what is planned for the future.
Pru Blackwell, Director Community Services, City of Salisbury
- 2.25pm LGA (SA) Women in Local Government Strategy – The LGA (SA) developed a strategy following the 2006 elections that showed 26.6% of Council members in SA and 16% of senior managers in Councils were women and at the time only 2 of the 68 Councils state wide had female CEOs. Wendy Campana will discuss the LGA (SA) journey culminating in 2010 as the Year of Women in Local Government.
Wendy Campana, Executive Director, Local Government Association of SA.
- 3.00pm “A Successful Life” in 2010 and beyond. An interactive presentation to be conducted by Helen Alm from Helen Elizabeth seminars and coaching.

Helen Alm has worked as a facilitator, trainer and coach in the Corporate, Education and Community Sectors for over 20 years. Her areas of expertise includes developing self confidence and self esteem, overcoming self sabotage, life balance, leadership, supervisory and team building skills, life and career planning, professional communication skills, self and energy management, creative thinking, presentation skills, mentoring and coaching. She is particularly committed to women’s personal and professional development, providing practical strategies within her facilitation and coaching work to assist women in making significant changes in their lives. Helen facilitates and coaches with enthusiasm and energy, and is committed to supporting the personal and professional growth of others.
